

COLOMBIA ISLAND OF THE WORLD

MISSION
FOR THE LOVE OF
GOD WORLDWIDE

The enemy of God does not want you to hear these words. I will simply say that in this Mission, which is called For the Love of God Worldwide, it is now one of the fastest growing Missions in the Catholic World. The Mission very simply, is asking you to realize the condition of the world. To look around you and see what is happening. To see that the world is abandoning God at an alarming rate. The Catholic Church is suffering all around the world.

In this Mission, we are asking you to look at your country of Colombia and to understand how blessed you are. In some countries in Europe, you will not see a crowd like this, unless it was Christmas Eve. We are having to shut churches all through Europe. We do not have enough priests and we don't have enough people to fill the churches. The understanding of God has been lost in a large number of families who no longer teach their children about God. We have now two generations who have grown now without God and we are seeing the result. We have now the highest population in the world of teenagers committing suicide. We have the highest rate of teenagers under 16 becoming pregnant. We have the highest rate of teenagers having abortions under the age of 16. The highest rate of teenage alcoholism, drug abuse, on and on and on.

We are leaving our children to be taught by the television and the television teaches nothing about God. Only the things of this world, the gods that we have created in this world and our children know nothing about God.

In Colombia, you still pray. In Colombia, you are still witness to your children as to your faith. In Colombia, you still support your Church; but all over this world this is not the case. And a dark cloud has come over these countries and it is getting darker and darker.

Pope John Paul II and Pope Benedict, have both tried to tell the world that the Catholic Faith is in trouble and they have also said that this continent is the most important continent in the world for the Catholic Faith. This Mission is to assist the Church into restoring the Catholic Faith in the historic catholic nations of the world; but the most important country within this fountain is the place that God the Father is calling the Island of Light in a sea of darkness. And what that means clearly, there is a country in this world that is about to show the light of God so greatly that in this sea of darkness, which is the world, this country will shine with the Love of God. And all of the children in this world who are fleeing the darkness, will see this light and will be attracted to it, like the animals were to Noah's Ark. The name of this country: Colombia.

But how do we prepare Colombia to receive this great distinction? All of us hope that someone is going to come and change our problems. But the day of the white knight and the horse riding in, there are no more white knights. And we always point and we always look to others: 'She is responsible of my problem, he, they'. We never look in the mirror, we are always looking at someone else to fix the problem. What this Mission is asking you to accept is that we need to return Colombia to God. And the way in which we can do that, very simply, if each one of us is willing to change ourselves first. Each of us know how we offend God, each of us know that there are parts of us that must change. And if we accept what is in our hearts already, that there is something very wrong in this world; that the world has gone too far... if we accept this, then we know that the way to stop this that is happening is that we must be 'the one' to enact the change but first within ourselves.

It has gotten so bad in the world today, that a decision has to be made soon: Am I a child of God? Or am I a child of this world? And if I am a child of God, then I must start acting like a child of God; I must stop offending God; I must search for the Love of God. We are His children; He is our Father. And God is not something out there, He is not some old man out there some place to be feared, even though the world has lot the fear of God. But the fear of God means, the fear of losing the Love of God.

God is very close to us. In these times, He is now walking the face of this Earth and His Voice can be heard. The words: 'Are you my child?' are ringing out all over this world. Are you the child of God? Or are you a child of this world? All of us need to love God because He is our Creator; but more than that, He is truly your Father.

In this Mission, For the Love of God Worldwide, it is God the Father who comes to us under the title of 'The Father of all Mankind' and He is saying to us: 'My child, please, hear my voice. It is I, I Am Who Am. It is I, your Father, and I have come to tell you 'My child, please, hear me; I love you child, I love you... please my child, come home. Come back to my heart. I am your Father, and you are made in My Image and in My likeness and I am your Father. Hear Me child, I love you, please hear my words deeply in your heart. My child, I love you; I love you with all that I Am, but you are abandoning Me, you no longer speak to Me; you no longer include Me in anything that you do and I Am your Father'.

It is very sad. If you look around the world, very few people want to talk about God and fewer want to hear about God. We have become god ourselves. We have become selfish; we have seen for many years the evil which has come into our country, into our communities, even into our homes and we have kept silent.

The largest faith on Earth, the silent majority, we have kept silent. We have said: 'As long as it does not affect me personally, please, don't bother me. Unless it knocks on my door, I don't want to know. But I hope someone will fix these problems because they have gone too far'. But, year after year, no one comes to fix these problems and the enemy of God grows and grows. And we, the children of God, close our eyes and turn our heads; and now evil has gotten to the point that it is surrounding the world. All over the world, freedoms are being taken away by the weak. And terrible laws are being passed which are not of God... and we are being told many things by our media and in many places in this world, the media is not of God. And yet, we, as the children of God, turn our heads. For the Catholic Faith, we can no longer turn our heads.

There will come a time soon, when we must decide, are we a child of God or a child of this world. And if we are that child of God, then we must change. And we must ask God: 'Father, forgive me, for I have looked the other way. Father, forgive me, for being silent, when I could see evil coming and as your child, I did nothing'.

'For evil to exist, all that is necessary is that good men and good women do nothing' and that is exactly what has been happening. We have been doing nothing and evil has been growing and growing and growing.

Colombia is a special land on Earth, it has been blessed with everything, above the ground, in the ground, below the ground. You have been given everything because God has blessed this place. And all over the world, when I mention the word Colombia, and I mention this island of light in this world; people say to me, how is this possible? The media tells us that Colombia is filled with nothing but violence and corruption. But I tell them this: `None of you know Colombia; where there is the greatest amount of good, there will you find the greatest amount of evil trying to destroy that good. That is Colombia... and the real treasure of Colombia is not what is above the ground, in the ground or below the ground. The secret treasure of Colombia are its people, their hearts, their faith; they are the children of God. And they are taking a `nap`, but soon, they will awake. And when they do, you will see something that you will not believe. You will see the children of God rise up; you will see all of this blood that has been shed in this conflict all these years and you will see God the Father use that precious blood and He will wash clean his country of Colombia. And the trumpet will blow and the children of God will awaken; and when they do, they will shout: ` I am a child of God, and I will no longer offend our Lord thy God. I love my Father; I love my Faith and I will defend my Father and my Faith´.

Hear me Father this night. Help me surrender unconditionally to Your Will. Grant me the gift of conversion, so that when that trumpet sounds, I will stand as your child washed, clean with the Precious Blood of Christ. Father, I am your child, please forgive me for looking away. Teach me Father to love You; I need to love You, my heart searches for You, but I don't know how to love You as I should. Teach me Father to love You. To love you with all of my heart, all of my soul, all of my mind. Take me home Father, take me into Your Heart; I am tired, I am tired of fighting. I need to rest in Your Heart. I need to surrender to Your Love, help me to tear myself away from this world, of the things that keep me in this world; help me Father. Help me this night to find Your Love. I do love You Father, I just don't know how to do it properly; forgive me Father, bless me this night.

Bless my family, bless my faith, help me to see that the Church is many things. Many things that I am not aware of. Help me to forgive the human side of the Church and to embrace the human nature of the Church. Help me to forgive, help me to see Father that I come here for You, to meet with You, to receive that which no one in this world has: the Real True Presence of Christ and the Sacraments that You have given me for life. Teach me Father the Ten Commandments. Help me to be obedient to this gift that You have given me. The world tells me that these Ten Commandments are redundant; they are no longer necessary because we are so advanced. Help me Father to understand that these are a gift from You. Not a punishment, not a hard way of having to live. Help me Father to understand this, that the Ten Commandments are a way to peace and happiness in my life. Father help me to come back to You in all ways. Help me to understand how important my country is; help me to understand the blood that is in my veins. Help me to realize that that blood is blessed.

The Colombian children of God have blessed blood in their veins. You are blessed people and now it's your time to come back to the side of God. It is your ancestors who gave you this gift. Their way of life before these times had God at the center of their daily life, and around it, was the family, loving, caring, united, forgiving. And around that, your Church, your Faith, your Sacraments. You were a community and your faith was a daily way of life. You are not Sunday Catholics, the Colombian children of God are Catholics as a daily way of life. For you, your faith is not an obligation that is fulfilled on a Sunday and then you go about your way in the world the other six and a half days. You are blessed people, you are the children of God and soon in this country, you will see this light that starts to emerge; you will feel it, you will feel it in your hearts, you will see it and you will hear it and you will know that it has begun the return of the children of God to the Heart of their Father. The Father that loves them with all that He is and Who at this very moment has His Hand over Colombia. And it is the Blessed Virgin Mary, who you officially invited to come to you on October 12th last year and She took it very seriously and She is working now in this country like never before and things are changing. Hope is now here. Hope is in front of you. Peace is about to come to Colombia but it must start with you; you must be the one that answer to God this night: `Father, I hear Your Voice, I will change. Please help me Father to change, to return to being your beloved child. Hold me Father, hold me tight and love me.

One day soon, it is my prayer that the world will see this light coming from this country and there will be no other explanation other than God exists, and He has made his home in his beloved Colombia. God bless you.
