

“THE SECRET OF LIFE”

TRANSCRIPT OF THE TALK GIVEN BY JOHN RICK MILLER ON AUGUST 17, 2009 AT ST.MALACHY CATHOLIC CHURCH TAMARAC, FLORIDA.

I would like to thank Father O'Dwyer very much for inviting us here.

We were here this morning for a talk and now we are concluding that talk tonight. Before we begin I would ask you to join me as we invoke the Mother of God and we ask the Blessed Virgin Mary to hear our prayer tonight and to grace us with her special presence as we also call the angels and the saints within this invocation.

In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen. Beloved Mother we call you, we call you Mother through time and distance and we ask you to please hear our voice and to be with us this night. Beloved St. Joseph we call your holy name and we ask you also St. Joseph to please hear our voice and to come to us this night. Beloved Michael, Prince of the Archangels, we ask you now Michael to allow one angel from each of God's 9 holy choirs of angels to be present here with us this night in this church of St. Malachi. From the first rank of angels, we ask now for one angel from God's most holy choir of Seraphim. We ask for one angel from God's most holy choir of Cherubim, and one angel from God's most holy choir of Thrones.

From the second rank of angels, we ask now for one angel from God's most holy choir of Dominions, one angel from God's most holy choir of Virtues and one angel from God's most holy choir of Powers. From the third rank of angels, we ask for one angel from God's most holy choir of Principalities, one angel from God's most holy choir of Angels and one angel from God's most holy choir of Archangels. We call upon Padre Pio this night and St. Charbel. We ask you beloved angels and saints to now encircle this company of Jesus, Mary and Joseph, to intercede for our intentions, and to protect us within the depth of our prayer as we seek to hear the word of God this night.

Holy Michael, Archangel, defend us in this day of battle, be our safeguard against the wickedness and snares of the devil, may God rebuke him, we humbly pray and do Thou, Oh! Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, cast down into hell, Satan and all the evil spirits who wander through this world for the ruin of souls. Amen. In the name of the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Thank you for being here. I belong to an organization called, "For the Love of God Worldwide". It is one of the fastest growing missions in the Catholic world, because it centers on the Love of God. It teaches the love of God (found) in Scripture and in the teachings of the Church. It centers on the love of God within every family.

It calls for the renewal of the family and the renewal of the family within their faith. In this particular case; the Catholic faith and the restoration of that faith. The re-teaching, relearning by God's children of the Sacraments of this Church.

This mission is in three parts: The Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. In the Father we ask parishes, cities, states and countries to consecrate themselves to the Sorrowful and Immaculate Heart of Mary and to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. The consecration of a parish or city or state or a country is very important, especially in these times. As of late, by the grace of God, as Father O'Dwyer mentioned in his introduction, we were recently able to assist the Church of Colombia with that country's consecration to Our Mother for the first time in nearly 500 years of Catholic presence in that area.

To consecrate the country to the Sorrowful and Immaculate Heart of Mary and to have the consecration to the Sacred Heart of Jesus renewed was very important to Colombia, because in 1991 the Administration of that time, somehow engineered to have Christ thrown out of Colombia. The Country, politically, was deconsecrated to the Sacred Heart (which was originally consecrated by both church and state in the early 1900's) and it was made illegal for any future President ever to consecrate that country again. But by the grace of God, and as nothing is impossible for God...in May 2008 it was made possible for me to speak with the President of Colombia and God touched the heart of this President. Through the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary, he was helped to understand how important it was to set right this terrible wrong. The President went on television on several occasions (one of which he invited me to seat with him) and did something that to my knowledge, no other President in the world has ever done. He went on television and said the Rosary. Immediately after that, again, he received a grace from God.

With the Nuncio of Rome, and with all the courage and the strength that God gave him at that time, again he went on television, but this time he went on television to consecrate himself and his family to the Immaculate Heart and the Sacred Heart.

Thus he paved the way for the Church to officially consecrate the country to the Immaculate Heart and set right the terrible thing that was done in 1991 to Our Lord, when on October 12th, 2008; they renewed the Consecration to the Sacred Heart. Immediately, thereafter, the General of the Army of Colombia was so touched by what he had seen through the change of the President of Colombia that he asked of me to know what was said to the President that caused this transformation. A short time later we saw a remarkable event in modern history, an armed force going down on its knees, an army wearing rosaries around their necks, an army laying down its weapons, kneeling...the Army, Navy, Marines, Air Force, and the Policia Nacional (National Police), all of these people consecrating themselves to the Sorrowful and Immaculate Heart of Mary and to the Sacred Heart of Jesus. .

Only God can do such things. Only God can show His children through such actions that He is alive and walking the face of the earth in these times, in this way. Only God can move a president of a country in this way. Only God can cause an army to wear rosaries around their necks. There are chapels of perpetual adoration built and being built on army posts in Colombia, so that, before they go into any operation, they go to these chapels of perpetual adoration and they kneel and they pray. It is very unusual... But this is what is happening in the world today, extraordinary things.

The Mission then went to Venezuela where there is a terrible problem.

There are so many people in Venezuela that are very poor, and yet the country is using its vast wealth to finance other nations to embrace its ideology. And yet, there are people living under under-passes, on mattresses. In Venezuela we saw the hand of God come down as well.

As the mission started in Venezuela, we saw that the only true public protest was among the University students, but they had been protesting for several years and to no avail. Nothing had changed, the students were getting very upset, and some of their leaders were thinking of resorting to another tactic other than peaceful demonstrations.

By the grace of God, the Mission was able to instill a different path and today through the intercession of the Blessed Mother; we have an extraordinary event-taking place in Venezuela. Each week, these University students meet together and each week they use what they have chosen as their weapon to bring democracy back to this country.

Their weapon of choice to bring freedom back... is the Rosary. Each week they come together in churches praying before the Blessed Sacrament. To see churches filled with young adults imploring God to change the course of their country is something not only very moving but also a ray of hope for the future. They are coming together in large numbers throughout the country to process with the rosary as their light in this area of darkness and I have no doubt at all, that soon, a resolution will be found.

The Mission then went to Ecuador, again with extraordinary results especially among the young people and the reception by the Church as to the consecration of the country. It then went to the Church in Panama where the Mission was approved very quickly and now Panama has accepted that they will consecrate their country. Poland also, all through many countries in Central and South America, one by one, countries are coming and are asking the Mission to begin.

The Primate of Australia has opened the door for the Mission in November of this year where it will begin in nearly every major city within Australia. Mexico, Nicaragua, Haiti, and Peru are just some of the countries asking the Mission to begin in their lands, which by The Grace of God is going to happen in the next few months. And now the Mission comes to the United States.... this land of the Blessed Virgin, this land so blessed by God for so many generations, so many decades. This is the land that the historians would have us believe is not a land of the Catholic Church and faith. Is not a land that was once given to the Blessed Virgin. But in fact, the archives in Washington tell us a different story. They tell us of a story of the Spanish and French who came here, and named their cities after the Saints. They tell us of a mighty river that we know as the Mississippi, but that was not its original name... That river was called the River of the Immaculate Conception.

They tell us of a story of a young army officer, at the inception of this country, who was fighting with the English against the French and Indians. It tells of a story of this young officer who was caught in an ambush, where French and Indians combined to slaughter this company of troops of the Americans and the English. It tells of a story of an Indian chief who later recounted this story after he found who this young soldier was. The story is that they had fired so many times at this young officer on top of his horse, because the Indian chief instructed his braves at one point to concentrate fire only on this officer. The tale goes on to say that all through his outer clothing there were bullet holes.

He lost several horses underneath him, but he found another and got right back up. They could never kill him and this is what the Indian chief attested to, that no matter how hard they tried, they could not kill him, while nearly all of the other officers were killed.

Later, this Indian chief went to the seat of government at the time to give his account.

Now it is in the archives of this country, that this special young army officer went on to become a general and he is so special, because also in the archives, is HIS story about a particular night, before he became the first President of these United States. That account by George Washington states that on this night the Blessed Virgin Mary came to him and showed him the future of the United States.

All of these accounts are in your archives as well as all of the stories of the Catholic Church in this country and how the Protestant movement sought to remove that history from sight. Also you can learn how the Protestant movement renamed these cities, renamed these rivers and lakes, and renamed anything that had anything to do with the Catholic Faith especially where it involved the Blessed Mother.

The Catholics were so persecuted here, that many moved to a little conclave, they moved into a section of the country where they could practice their faith in freedom, and they called it Mary's Land.

Today you know that place as the state of Maryland.

This country is deeply rooted in the Catholic Faith. This country is deeply rooted in the Blessed Virgin Mary. So we were not entirely surprised when this Mission was called to the United States. We are here now in South Florida beginning this Mission, in cities up and down the coast and we are asking you to think, to understand, and to absorb what this Mission is all about.

It is not a movement, it is not a devotion, but it is a daily way of life. The Catholic Faith all over the world has eroded in general to a state that is nearly one of obligation.

We have become in most places of the world Sunday Catholics. But this is not what Our Lord had intended us to be.

We are Catholics as a daily way of life, and that is an important and necessary distinction. In this mission we are asking you to look at this point and to understand it. Look around the world and see what's happening and see how the world is abandoning God.

The world is making its own commandments. The Ten that God had given us are becoming redundant according to those who no longer want to follow them, instead they make their own. We are seeing the Catholic Church all over the World go through a change. We are seeing "For Sale" signs on doors of Catholic property. We are seeing seminaries with only a handful of new people coming each year. We are seeing monasteries and convents close due to a lack of new people coming and because there is no money to keep them open and restore them. We are seeing a crisis of faith. We are seeing Catholics leaving the Church to become Pentecostals, New Age, Evangelicals, all manner of things, because somewhere along the line we have lost the value of our faith. We have lost the understanding that had previously been passed down generation to generation.

We are losing this knowledge, this wisdom, this understanding of what we already have in our hands, but we can't see it, and sadly we don't value it because most of us have had it handed to us, we have never had to fight for it or earn it so it has little to no value. So we give it up so easily. When in fact what we already have in our hands, is the greatest treasure that anyone could possess.

No one else has been given this right, this chosen status, no other faith has what we have, the true Presence of Christ, no one.

No one else has these gifts of Heaven, the Sacraments of the Church (that can only be administered by the Priesthood), No one.

And yet, many of us don't understand the Sacraments. In the Catholic Church around the world, what we unfortunately understand is the human side of the Church, and we point our fingers and say: "this priest, that priest, I don't like this, I don't like that", when in fact we must begin to understand the Divine Nature of the Church.

The Catholic Church is a treasure, which must be dug for. Catholics are the only ones that can have actually have the Blessed Trinity within them through the receiving of the Eucharist in a state of grace. You are the only ones that can restore your souls through the Sacrament of Reconciliation.

You are the only ones that can be blessed in many, many ways through the Sacraments. But yet, we don't understand what we have, and so we don't value it.

It is so easy for someone else to come in with a promise of other things and take us away from this great treasure.

All over the world this is happening, people are looking for God in every place except where He already is, in their own hands, as Catholics.

In this mission, we ask also for the Church to establish chapels of Perpetual Adoration and that's why I'm so happy to be standing here tonight because you are among the rare few that have a chapel of Perpetual Adoration. You are to be applauded, commended, because you are also greatly blessed.

We have lost the understanding of these chapels of Perpetual Adoration. In many places in the world, they have no idea why we do this.

One of the lesser-known and possibly more important reasons for Perpetual Adoration stems from the theology of the Cross. As the mystics and the saints of our Church describe it, that at the moment of death, the Sacred Heart of Jesus emitted a wave of grace, the grace of conversion, and that grace flowed down the cross over everyone in Golgotha. The first were the Roman soldiers, led by their commander (Abenader).

At that moment as the grace of God entered them, they realized who they had crucified. So they put their swords and shields down and knelt, and Abenader led them into the hills and mountains and they became the first Disciples of Christ after his death. That wave of grace continued down through Jerusalem out into the valleys, into the nations. That is the same wave of grace, which is emitted when your priest exposes the Blessed Sacrament.

The Sacred Heart of Jesus contained within the Eucharist, this same Eucharist begins to emit this wave of grace and it flows out through this parish and into the neighborhoods around this parish and where the Eucharist is perpetually adored, that wave of grace, coming from the Heart of Christ builds and spreads out minute by minute into the community.

We recommend that chapels of Perpetual Adoration be placed first in neighborhoods of serious crime, because as this wave of grace builds and moves, there is no evil that can stand in the way of that grace, it must leave. A case in point, Cali (a city) in Colombia, once known as one of murder capitals of the world, people could not go out at night. They lived behind iron bars in their homes.

If you go to Cali today, you will now find 34 chapels of Perpetual Adoration in Cali with more being built, and in Cali today, the people go out of their homes and they're walking in the streets at night, their freedom restored. Also, the churches are full. Every major feast, the people, by the thousands, are out in the streets processing with rosaries. The place is alive with God once again.

It cannot be explained by any authority why in those 34 locations, the rate of serious crime has diminished so drastically...other than the chapels of Perpetual Adoration.

In this Mission, we are asking the Church, in all of these countries, to establish these chapels in cooperation with the Mission, so that we can help to bring about this Presence of Christ especially in the neighborhoods of high crime. This is within the section that we call in this Mission, "The Father".

In the "Son", we ask the people to understand the condition of the world, how this world has fallen so far away from God in so many things.

This morning I gave the example of Europe, where we are suffering this so badly. It is the children who are facing the result of this abandonment of God by much of society. In many places in Europe the move towards secular societies has meant that parents have stopped teaching their children about God.

We have now the highest rate of Teenage suicide in the world. We have now the highest rate of teenage pregnancy under 16 in the world and the highest rate of teenage abortion under 16 in the world and the highest rate of teenage alcoholism and teenage drug abuse in the world.

Our marriages in Europe are collapsing. According to Church records; in Spain, every 30 minutes, there is a Catholic couple divorcing or separating in what was once one of the bastions of Catholic Faith in the world and this rate is increasing. Secular societies are now dictating the rules of these countries. God is being shoved out of everything, from prayer in public schools, hospitals, even to swear an oath in courts, anywhere the name of God is mentioned. Important feast days are replaced by consumerism. The world has become complacent and allowed the enemy of God to remove the name of its Creator from living memory. We have even allowed Christ to be X'd out of Christmas (xmas). What are we doing, one of the largest faiths on Earth, given everything, and we are silent.

In the second part of this Mission, the "Son", we are asking the people of the world, the Catholic people of the world, to please look at this, to look at the disintegration of society and to look at the state of their Church, and to return, to restore the Catholic Faith, to restore your heritage, your inheritance.

We are asking the people to look at themselves, because we have a habit of pointing and saying, "She is responsible for my problems; He is responsible for my problems; they are responsible for my problems". And what we are suggesting dear brothers and sisters, please, the time of excuses, the time of suggesting untruths is at an end, and that we turn our finger, bend our elbow, and bend it where it belongs.

If you want change, I have to be the one to change, first, no one else, nothing else. It is I; I am the one that has to change. If I don't want to change, what right do I have to ask everyone else to change? And if I don't change, what is the condition of the world going to be in 10 years from now, at this progression? Am I a child of God or not? This is the question.

Because if I am; then, I must begin to act like a child of God. Many of us have been so deceived that we have become children of the world, and as children of the world, we have a habit of not only being deceived but deceiving ourselves because we know the truth, but we don't want to fix it.

Our Lord has told us very clearly, that you must decide, you can't sit on the fence, you can't be one day this, and the next day that.

He tells us very clearly, beware those of you who are lukewarm, at the end of time; I will spit you from my mouth. It is time in the world, that we make a choice: Are we children of the world or are we children of God? What the Bible says to us is true, that God exists, that we are His children, made in His image and in His likeness. If we are made in the likeness of God, that means one thing, God is love, so that if He is love, and we are made in his likeness, we have the same capacity to love. And if we love God, then we can change, even if we don't know yet the depths of the love of God.

If only we have that small particle, that says, "I want to know the love of God", that is enough. Life is truly different with the love of God.

To love God with all of your heart, with all of your soul, with your entire mind, is your life's ambition. It is the reason we are here.

This entire journey that you are on in this short, short life is to determine that you want the Love of God. You want to be with God.... Our Lord tells us very clearly in the Gospels, that the two most important things in a person's life, is to love God.... love Him with all that you are, because then and only then, will you be able to understand the second, and that is to be able to love one another.

Where your brother or sister is naked, you are no longer (to be) selfish or self-centered. With the love of God, that is the center of your everyday life, you see their need and you attend to it. You understand that when they are hungry, you make sure that they are fed, where they need shelter, they receive it, and when a people are abandoning God, in the wholesale way we are doing these days, we make sure that at least, we are not part of them.... but equally as important.... that we ask God for them and help where we can to let in the light. That is the second part of this Mission, to look in a mirror and understand who is looking back at you.

How far have we come from God? What do we need to do to readdress this, to correct this? That is the task.... But it must be done by each one of us individually, one by one, that if we have to be the only little candle in this world, which is lit because of the love of God, then I say, "Yes"... I will become that little candle for the love of God, regardless of what that means. I will be that little candle, because I am the child of God.

In the third part of this Mission, the "Holy Spirit", we ask you to form prayer groups, 5 or 6 people at the beginning, and to pray in your homes, in this Church, to pray the prayers that this Mission has been given, the prayers which address society, the things in society that affect your daily life. We pray for the politicians, media, the Church, etc. and we pray very deep prayers. Very meaningful prayers, within the hidden mysteries of the Sorrowful Mysteries. We ask you only to meet once a week, but to say these prayers from your heart, and to conduct this introspection and to decide, "Am I a child of God or not? And if your answer is "Yes", then, surrender unconditionally to the Will of God and begin your journey back to the heart of God.... To the one that loves you unconditionally, with all that He is, your Father, your Father who is now being so neglected throughout the world, very, very few include Him any more in anything let alone speak to Him, we must stop and begin to understand who we really are, that we are not only the children of God but begin to see ourselves as the true sons and daughters of the love of God. Because once we love God, it is so hard ever again to offend Him and because of our love for Him we learn to defend Him.

As we perform the third step of this Mission (the Holy Spirit), we are no longer silent. It has once been said, that for evil to exist, all that is necessary is that good men, and I include good women, do nothing. For evil to exist all that is necessary is that good men and women do nothing. And that's what we have been doing, my dear brothers and sisters. We are not speaking out, we are silent, and that must end, because the world is going down a very dangerous path. I don't need to tell you anymore than that. You know it; you can see it, you can feel it in your heart. Our children are growing up all over the world with little to no knowledge at all about God. This cannot, must not continue, it needs to stop.

The Church, your faith, needs your help. Your priests need your help. You need to understand your faith anew, and the Sacraments, what they mean to you.

But first we search for the love of God to enable us to want to do this, to want to possess this, in our very souls, so we can understand the gift we have been given, and to use it now properly.

In this last part of the Mission, we ask you to then support through prayer and action those organizations which are fighting the evil which has blanketed this world; abortion, perversion, immorality, corruption, materialism just to name some and to support those organizations supporting life and goodness and family and faith in all respects, to stand up against the things that are not of God in your country, in your city, in your state, in your home, in yourself. To begin to become that little candle regardless of what that may mean.

Search for the love of God, so that in your soul, you know categorically that you are a child of God. When you call upon the name of "Father", you call it from your heart, because you know in your heart, He is your Father and He does exist, and you know within your soul, that He loves you, because you love Him.

And when this connection is made, there is nothing greater in this life, because you have found the key to eternal life and your lives will change; they will become so enriched, that you will thank God every moment of every day thereafter.

If you feel that this Mission, which is open to all faiths, (under this Catholic umbrella) is a way of daily life that strongly calls out to you, then, my dear brothers and sisters, please accept that you are being called, that nothing in these times is a coincidence. To have God as the center of your everyday life, the core.... and around that.... the family; strong, united, loving but most of all forgiving.... and around that.... the 3 in 1, the Church, your faith, the Sacraments, the greatest of all treasures. If you have this, my dear brothers and sisters, you will have everything, 'The Secret of Life'. All you have to do is ask your Father from your heart, even this night....Father, please forgive me a sinner. Help me Father to love you as you love me, help me please my Father to change those things in me that I know I must change. I need to feel your love Father; I want to finally be at peace in my soul. If you do this....you will change, your family will change, the city will change, and by the grace of God, the country can change, even this world can change. Abandon yourself to the Love of God.... Father, your ocean is so big and my boat is so little. Remember the little mustard seed. Think of yourself as that little seed, and I have all the faith, that you will grow, into that mighty oak. May God, the Father of All Mankind, bless you and your Mother; the Blessed Virgin Mary, intercede for you.
