

THE GODS OF THIS WORLD

It is time that we declare who we are. But if we should say that I am a child of God, then we must understand what we are saying. A child of God does not offend his Father, a child of God does not sit silently by and watch evil control and own everything around us. A child of God does not let his child perish...But yet, many of us declare: 'I love my children'.

Look at what has happened on the last twenty years: The quantum leap that we have taken in silence and complacency as the children of God... and for those who are Catholic, worse. The chosen children of God for these times... Through our silence and complacency, we have allowed evil to grow at such a rate that it now has infected everything we look, it has infested our media. All that we see, all that we hear, all that we read is infected from top to bottom. And what are we doing?

In the last 20 years alone, what once was shocking, we are being so bombarded every day that we are no longer shocked about anything. What was once scandalous, we are losing this word. This word is literally disappearing; nothing any longer shocks us or is a scandal. Corruption is so widespread, it's taking on a different meaning, adultery, and perversion is so widespread that it now has become so commonplace. We no longer put our hands on our face because it is now in our face, seven days a week; everywhere we look... it is in our face, inescapable. That is in the last 20 years alone.

I ask you this question, in the next 20 years, if we have 20 years at this progression, unbridled, no one stopping it, what is the next 20 years going to be if the children of God continue their silence and their complacency?.

Allow me to tell you that you will not recognize this world...and you say with all due respect that you love your child.

What inheritance are you handing that child through your silence? What world is that child of yours going to grow up in and being faced as an adult? On behalf of the older people that have messed this up, because of their cowardice, because of their silence, I apologize to you, all of the young people, because you have to grow up in a world that is facing you. But I say to you, do not make the same mistake that we made... never be silent in the face of what you know is wrong. Don't ever allow anyone to tell you that what you know is wrong, is right. What is wrong is wrong and it will always be wrong... what you know in your soul it is not right, listen to it. Don't ever be told by your peers that everyone is doing it... so, what is the problem? The problem is that God exists and He is running out of patience...

Even nature itself is rebelling against the people of these times, but we never learn.
